DEVELOPMENTS IN THE PHILADELPHIA MORGUE INVESTIGATION.

A DERANGED MAN MURDERS HIS WIFE AND THEN HANGS HIMSELF.

A STARTLING STORY ABOUT A BAND OF RAILROAD ROBBERS CONTRADICTED.

A MAN STABBED BY A YOUNG LADY IN A LOVERS ROW.

A WOMAN SIXTY YEARS OLD STARVES HERSELF TO DEATH.

ETC. ETC. ETC.

THE MORGUE INVESTIGATION.

PHILADELPHIA, August 21.—A hearing was had today in the case of Deputy Coroner Zeno, superintendent of the Morgue, and Dr. McEwan, driver of the coroner's wagon. The two former are charged with trafficking in dead bodies, and the latter with robbery. This case grows out of the discovery of the late Mr. Munce. The testimony showed that the gold watch had been stolen from the body of Mr. Munce, and pawned by McEwan. That the body was removed to the college with the clothes on. The superintendent of the morgue failed to keep a record of the clothing or property as required by law. A witness testified Baxter looked a little like the man who took Munce's body to the college, and he had frequently brought others to the place. There was no direct evidence against the deputy coroner, but he and Baxter were held for further hearing. McEwan was committed.

WIFE MURDER IN ILLINOIS.

ST. LOUIS, August 23.—A dispatch from Payson, Illinois, says on Friday of last week, John Hancock, living four miles from Payson, was discovered hanging by the neck from the window of his house, by a gentleman. He was dead. On entering the house Mrs. Hancock was found lying on two chairs, with a terrible wound in the head from which brains and blood were oozing. The lady lived three days, but did not return to consciousness. An explanation of the matter could not, therefore, be obtained, but it is supposed Hancock, who for sometime has shown symptoms of derangement, struck his wife with a hammer, one being found near her covered with blood and hair, and then hung himself. Hancock was a respected citizen of 30 years standing, and about 40 years old.

A BARE FABRICATION.

ST. LOUIS, August 23.—A special dispatch from Lawrence, Kansas, dated August 21, which has gained circulation in papers outside of that state, and which purports to give an account of an attempt to blow a train on the Missouri Pacific railroad from the track 4 miles east of Holden, the boarding of the train by a band of ruffians with the evident intention of robbing the passengers and the subsequent killing of one, and wounding of another of the desperadoes at Holden, is pronounced by officers of the road here to be utterly false, and that the entire story is made out of whole cloth. The conductor of the train states nothing of the kind occurred either that evening or on any other occasion, and that the story is a bare fabrication from beginning to end.

A FIGHTING LOVER.

NEW YORK, August 23.—Henrietta Uitz, residing with her father, a physician, in Brooklyn, who forbade her keeping company with one John Smith, yesterday afternoon met her lover, and soon the angry father appeared, and went for John with tongue and cane. Joseph Fries came to the assistance of the father, and Henrietta made for Fries, the result of which was that Henrietta gave bail today to answer a charge of stabbing Fries, who was said to be too severely wounded to appear in court. The father became her bondsman.

A WOMAN WHIPPED TO DEATH.

Some commotion has been caused in Brooklyn from statements made that Mrs. Christina Langdon, died from severe castigation at the hands of Dr. Jacob Gerst. It appears the woman has been in poor health for sometime, and a few days ago got a fall in the evening. She was delirious, and the following morning was a raving lunatic. The doctor was called and as the woman, according to statements made by her married daughter, would not be still, the doctor tied her hands behind her back, threw her on a sofa, and whipped her quiet with a rope or strap. The woman soon afterwards became paralyzed and in that state died. Investigation will be made by the coroner.

FATAL FIGHT.

DAYTON, August 23.—An altercation this afternoon in this city, between Michael Jennings, a cattle dealer, and Geo. Frediner, a bologna sausage maker, resulted in the latter stabbing Jennings to the heart, killing him. The quarrel was about the price of a bull.

Jennings threatened the arrest of Frediner, the latter struck him, Jennings retaliated with a chair, and Frediner killed him and surrendered to the sheriff. Both had families.

A PRUCKY OFFICER.

NEW YORK, August 23.—As Roundhouse Jno. Morris was returning home from his vacation last night, he was attacked by two men on West Forty-fourth street and knocked down six times. To finish the fight one of the men drew a revolver and fired at Morris but the shot missed. The officer then closed with his chief assailant, wrenched the pistol from him, and, with the butt, beat the two men enough to march them before him to the station-house.

POST-OFFICE ROBBER.

LITTLE ROCK, August 23.—The post-office at Perry station in Pope county, on the line of the Fort Smith railroad having been raided by thieves two or three times lately, and the postmaster reporting he could not protect the mails, special mail agent Egerton has discontinued the office.

A WEALTHY BOOT-BLACK.

NEW YORK, August 23.—Three boot-blacks were arrested today, and in the possession of one was found the $3,900 in drafts and a portion of $170 in greenbacks, which Capt. Blake of Chicago lost in Saratoga on July 31.

STARVED VOLUNTARILY.

LACON, New Hampshire, August 23.—Miss Susy of Belmont, aged 60, died Thursday of voluntary starvation, having refused food for twenty-eight days. A sister of deceased died in the same way a few years ago.

DEATH HIS WIFE.

LITTLE ROCK, August 23.—Albert Lawson, colored, beat his wife who was enroute on Sunday last, from the effects of which she died yesterday. Lawson is in jail.

PASSENGERS ON THE ISLAND.

LATER.—A second dispatch from Helena, dated ten o'clock, says the passengers and crew are still on St. Francis island, waiting for an up-river boat, and no further particulars can be obtained. The spot where the blow up is known as the "Graveyard," being the same place where the Pennsylvanians and St. Nicholas blew up, and the McGill burned. The Wolfe was bound from Shreveport to St. Louis. H. S. Carter was her commander and Joseph H. Fiden her clerk.

Nothing further has been received from the steamer Geo. C. Wolfe and nothing definite as to the fate of lost and saved can be obtained before to-morrow, as the survivors are waiting on an upward bound boat. The next due is the Julia, and she had not passed Helena at six o'clock.

SEARCHING FOR BODIES.

NEW YORK, August 23.—Search is being made in the ruins of the building which fell yesterday in West Randolph street, to find the body of a boy supposed to be there. It is thought none of the wounded men will die. The bodies of the Keiller and Rowe, reporters, drowned at Morris, Long Island, the other day, have been recovered.
